

Jesus spoke to the people using the image of sheep and a sheepfold. He wanted to help them understand who truly leads God's people.

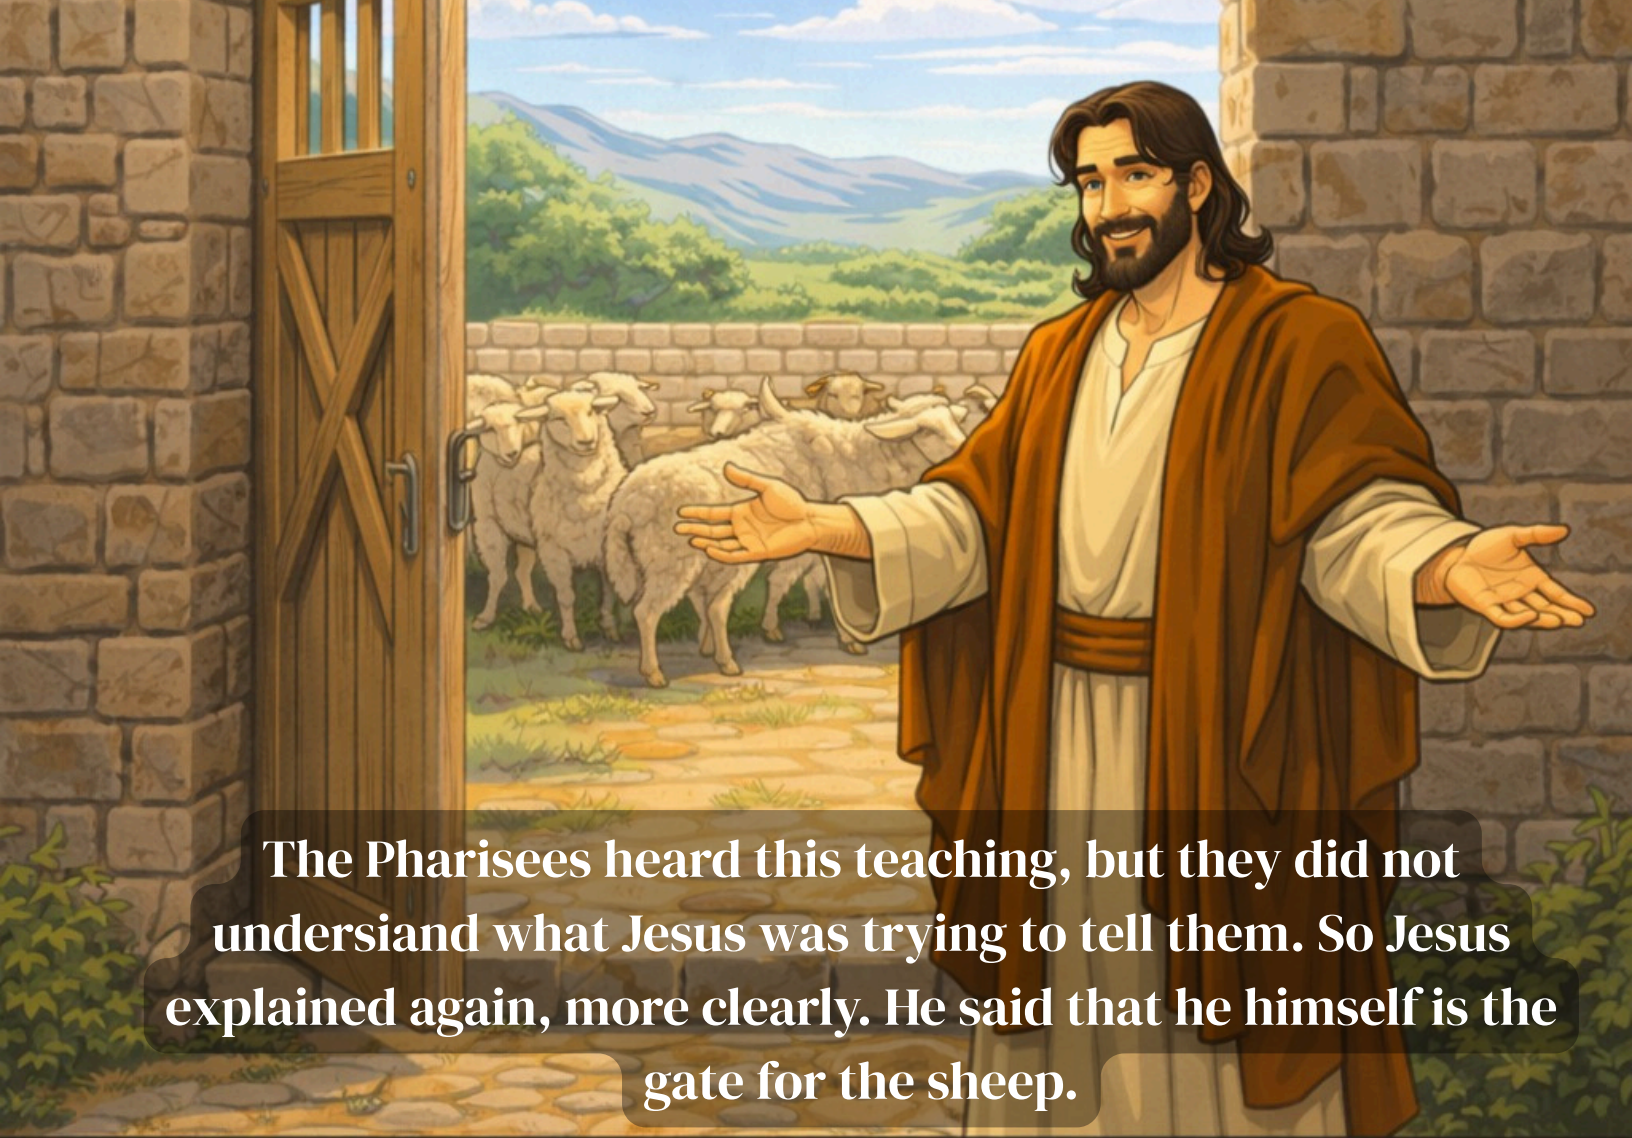

Jesus explained that the true shepherd enters through the gate. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep listen to his voice.

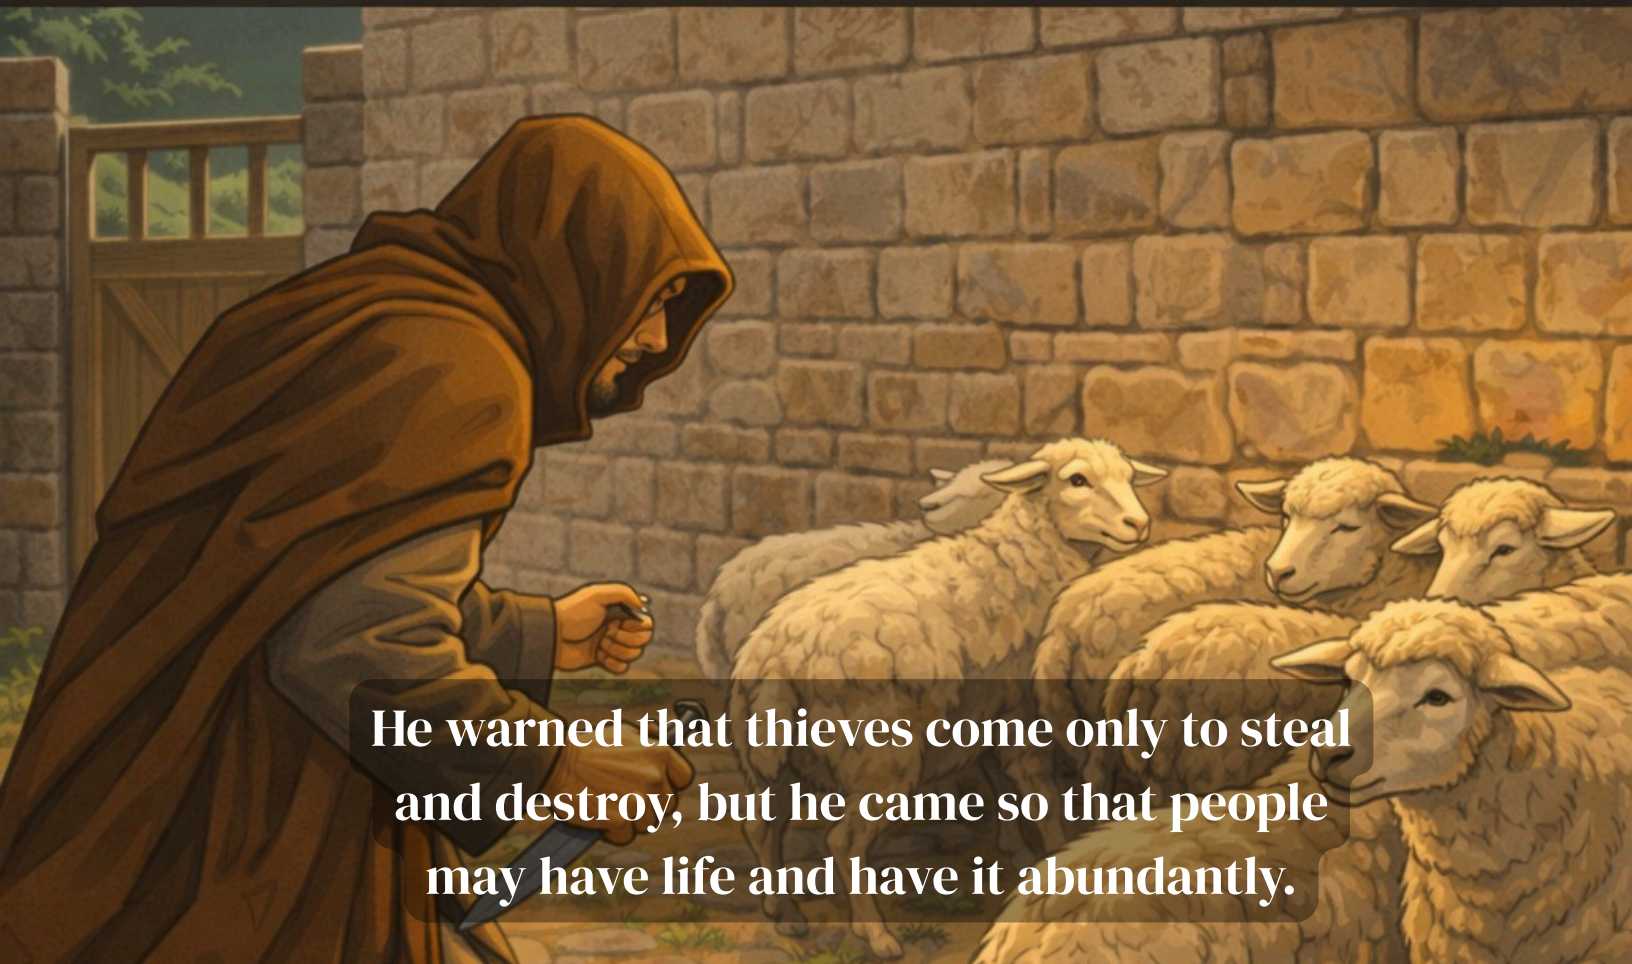

Jesus said the sheep will not follow a stranger. They run away because they do not know the stranger's voice.

The shepherd knows each sheep by name and leads them out with care. The sheep follow him because they recognize his voice.

The Pharisees heard this teaching, but they did not understand what Jesus was trying to tell them. So Jesus explained again, more clearly. He said that he himself is the gate for the sheep.

He warned that thieves come only to steal and destroy, but he came so that people may have life and have it abundantly.

Jesus said that anyone who enters through him will be saved.
They will find safety, freedom, and everything they need.
